Short Wraps.

There a c a great many different styles of Ladies', Misses' and Chintren's winter wraps in fachion this season and a great variety of materials out of which they are manufer tured, in fact, to make a long story short, we have 20 separate and distinct styles, manufactured copecially for us, and cock and every style we have, we have in sixteen different varieties of material, with or without hoods or capes. In fact we have a stock which we dely New York, Chiengo, St. Louis or Kansas City to beat—yes even equal. New to quote genuine real facts and be candid about the matter the styles were so perfectly elegant, the materials of which they were made so handsome, and hast but by no means least, we're offered to us so remarkably cheap that it was beyond our power not to imagine they were giving them to us, so we purchased twice as many as we really wanted. We have got to do something to dispose of chem, we cannot keep them, and we have come to the conclusion that what was our misfortune shall be your gain. Therefore, although it is really a shame to slaughter such remark-dily desirable garments, we have commenced and shall continue is sell as long as the lot hasts, our entire stack of winter wraps at slaughter prices.

Now don't thick for one moment—don't ever let such an idea enter your head, that you can de just as well some place clas, for it is an utter impossibility for any dealer to a ven come any way areas us when it comes to the question of price.
